GENERAL RULES

1. At the end of August the registration office will notify the participant of the rehearsal times for the qualifying round. Please direct any special wishes when applying.
2. For semi final and final rounds, the order of sequence in which the competitors will rehearse and play, will be determined by casting lots prior to each round.
3. The anonymity of the participants towards the jury will be strictly observed in all rounds.
4. During the rehearsal each candidate receives help for operating the registration sequencer. During the rehearsal and competition maximum one assistant is admitted for page turning and activation of the sequencer. The assistant may not choose the registrations for the candidate as the registration is part of the candidate's competition.
5. As long as the candidate is in competition, contacts between the candidate or his assistant and the jury or members of the jury are not allowed.
6. The jury will make its decisions in meetings that are not open to the public. Such decisions are final and incontestable.
7. The jury is entitled to dispense with awarding prizes, to split a prize or to award special prizes.
8. The project leader may cancel the competition if the jury estimates the candidate's applications too low. In this case the registration fee will be refunded.
9. The participants will arrange for their travel, food and accommodation expenses themselves.
10. Upon arrival each competitor will be given free public transport tickets, offered by the Luxembourg Railway Company CFL. These tickets allow for free train transport between the towns of Luxembourg and Dudelange as well as for free bus transport.
11. All rounds are open to public.
12. It is forbidden to make any kind of recordings during all rounds.
13. No legal action can be taken.
14. Each participant automatically accepts these conditions when applying.
15. All items may be subject to modification.
